3. Mail a copy of your form to your Association.
 4. Keep a copy for your church records.
 5. Follow the above steps to report a mission VBS or a Backyard Bible Club.
 6. For each report, be sure to check the appropriate box at the top to indicate the activity you are reporting.
 7. Note: Do not report a VBS conducted by an established mission sponsored by your church. An established mission will receive its own report form. Each established mission will report its VBS, mission VBS, or Backyard Bible Club directly.
- Your VBS report is important to your church! VBS is a significant Bible Study, outreach and evangelistic activity. Good records of this year's VBS will help those who plan for next year. Your VBS is important to your association and the Georgia Baptist Mission Board! It is used to strengthen the VBS training provided by LifeWay, the GBMB and your local Baptist Association. Your VBS report is important to LifeWay Christian Resources! VBS curriculum materials and other resources are evaluated annually, and improvements are made based on research information.
